KEYSBOROUGH
GOLF CLUB INCORPORATED

Joining Keysborough Golf Club

From 1992 the Club’s structure has included an unlisted public company, Keysborough Golf Club Holdings Ltd. Each share in the Company has a “playing right” attached. The Club constitution requires adult members to be holders of a “playing right” either as the owner of a share, and therefore a part owner of the Club, or as a lessee of a share.

Unlike most other Golf Clubs, Keysborough Golf Club does not charge an “ENTRANCE FEE” or Joining Fee to new members.

To Join

Having collected and completed an application form, your name is placed on the Club notice board for a period of seven days. You can also apply for membership via the clubs website. If there are no objections to the application, an interview is arranged with the Membership Director. Following the interview an account will be raised, and you will then be most welcome to play!

Shares

Keysborough Golf Club was privatised in 1992 and shares in the new Holding Company were made available for purchase. Golf membership of Keysborough is conditional upon holding a "playing right" either through direct ownership of a share and "playing right", or via leasing a "playing right". Club administration assists in ensuring that this requirement is an extremely simple process. If a share is acquired outright, the share can be subsequently sold or transferred. A share purchase plan is available with payment over 5 years. The Club is unable to guarantee a price / value of a share and shares are not listed on the ASX.

Junior Membership

The Keysborough Golf Club encourages junior membership and all junior members have 7 Day playing rights without the requirement of holding a "playing right" (subject to Committee approval). When a junior reaches the age of 25 he/she will then be required to purchase a share or lease a "playing right". The following are the current annual subscription rates including GST.

|------------------------------|---|----------------|--|
| JUNIOR > to 17 yrs | = | $380 | Competition Fees, VGA or WGV/WGA |
| JUNIOR 18 - 20 yrs | = | $700 | affiliation fees and insurance are additional |

Country Membership

The Club offers members permanently residing more than 150 KM from the clubhouse the opportunity of applying for special country subscription rates at 25% of the ordinary subscription. Please contact the Club for further information.
